Azzahra Hotel

The Azzahra hotel is a hidden gem nestled within a magnificent 19th-century building on the quiet corner of Azzahra Street, just a ten-minute walk from the iconic Old City of Jerusalem. Steeped in history, the building was once a lavish private residence, exuding a timeless charm that continues to captivate visitors. During Jordan's rule of eastern Jerusalem from 1948 to 1967, the building was frequented by distinguished guests, including King Abdullah and other Jordanian VIPs. Today, Azzahra Hotel stands as a testament to its storied past, attracting travelers from all over the world who seek an authentic and memorable experience in the city. The hotel offers a range of inviting accommodations. Whether you seek a cozy single room or a spacious family room, Azzahra Hotel offers a variety of options to suit every traveler's needs. Each room is thoughtfully designed with private facilities, flat screen TV, air conditioning and heating, free WIFI, digital safe, and Tea and Coffee making facilities. Indulge in a delightful culinary experience at the renowned restaurant located within the walls of the hotel. Azzahra's kitchen proudly features one of Jerusalem's only proper brick ovens, adding an authentic touch to the thin-crust Italian-style pizzas that have become one of the restaurant's signature dishes. The restaurant also offers a rich combination of Middle Eastern and European dishes and has an excellent kids menu. Complementing the delectable cuisine, the restaurant's extensive wine list showcases a diverse selection from all corners of the world. Book your stay at Hotel Azzahra today and experience the allure of a bygone era combined with modern sophistication and amenities.
