

New Capitol Hotel

The New Capitol Hotel is a hospitable and inviting hotel that is the perfect destination for visitors to the city of Jerusalem. Located in the heart of East Jerusalem on Salah Eddin Street, it is less than a 10-minute walk from Herods Gate and the Old City walls. The area offers several cafes, fast food restaurants, street vendors, and a variety of retail shops. The hotel was built in 1958 and was owned and managed by the Palestinian Sarandah family. The hotel was eventually sold and underwent a renovation in 2018. Today, the 5-story hotel offers more than 70 rooms and suites. The range includes single rooms, double, triple, and family rooms, as well as executive suites. Guests of the hotel will be delighted to find all of the necessary amenities in their rooms including WiFi, extra sheets, and minibar Flat screen TV, and welcome drink set. The New Capitol Hotel is committed to providing excellent service to every guest. The staff are friendly and professional, eager to ensure that all visitors have the best possible experience while visiting the holy city.
