Ecce Homo Pilgrim House

The Ecce Homo Convent, also called Our Lady of Zion or Sisters of Notre Dame de Sion, is an accommodating hospice perfect for travelers or those in need of a simple, sanitized stay. Located in the Christian Quarter, the Guesthouse provides visitors with easy access to all of the major attractions of the Old City. The Ecce Homo Convent was founded in 1856 by the Congregation of Notre Dame de Sion. Since 2006, the ministry in Ecce Homo has been shared with the Community of Chemin Neuf. With its unique blend of ancient and modern, the Ecce Homo Guesthouse provides a perfect base for exploring the Old City and its many wonders. At the Ecce Homo Guesthouse, guests can enjoy a variety of modern amenities and services in a unique historic limestone building which dates back to 1856. Today, the guesthouse offers a mix of 31 comfortable rooms, including single rooms, double or triple rooms, as well as family suites and dormitories. In addition, guests can enjoy a variety of services including daily breakfast and a rooftop terrace with stunning views of the Old City. The staff at the Ecce Homo Guesthouse is dedicated to ensuring that your stay is as pleasant and comfortable as possible. For those looking to explore the area, the Ecce Homo Guesthouse is the perfect place to stay while exploring the beautiful and historic Old City of Jerusalem. The Guesthouses also offer special lunches for groups if booked in advance. Group lunches at the Ecce Homo Hospice are a perfect way for groups to take a break from the Via Dolorosa. With easy access and a lift to the terrace, groups of 12-60 people can be accommodated, and the meals are served family style with a salad, entrée, hot meal, dessert, and coffee or tea. Special dietary needs can be catered for, and bookings can be made well in advance.
